

10. Acknowledgments

- I would like to thank Professor Dr. Franz Hörchner for his continuous advices and supports since we firstly met each other in 1997.
- German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) for financial support during my stay in Germany.
- The special thanks to Dr. Irmgard Moser, Mrs. Renate Putsche, Mrs. Heidrun Wittig, Mrs. Sandy Werner and all staffs of BfaV in Jena (since August 2004 Friedrich-Loeffler-Institute) , who gave me advices not only on scientific topics but also on German lifestyle during my stay in Jena.
- Dr. Petra Möbius and her colleagues for supporting me scientific techniques and materials for RFLP.
- Mrs. Maria Hinrichs, who was always with me in photo-laboratory.
- All staffs in slaughterhouses at Essen, Freiburg, Meiningen and Nohra for giving me the chances to collect lymph node samples for my study.
- Assoc. Professor Dr. Kanisak Onveerakul, who encouraged and gave me a chance in 1994 to step in scientific professional career instead of a world of “dreamer”.
- Last but not least, numerous of thanks to dad, mom, all Sirimalaisuwan members and Miss Warangkana Siriwanont for my life-long support and all inspiration.
