I wish to give my cordial thanks to Prof. Schultheiss, head of the department of cardiology and pneumology, Free University of Berlin for the opportunity to work and study in his department.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. Carsten Tschöpe whose help, stimulating suggestions and encouragement helped me in all the time of research for and writing of this thesis.

I thank Dr. Thomas Walther for his help from the bottom of my heart, for suggesting a topic for this thesis and for his continuous support during my study in the laboratory.

I am grateful to Ms Christine Altmann, she gave me warm and patient helps concerning the experimental technique.

I would also like to thank all people working and studying in our department for their concern and help.

I extend my sincere thanks to Prof. W. W. Höpker, head of the Germany-China Association For Medicine, for his continuous support during my two years study in the Free University of Berlin.
