Abstract

The dataset is related to the Horizon 2020 Una.Resin project Work Package 1 mapping exercise (Task 1.2) on Research & Innovation (R&I) strategies and strategic initiatives. This task was carried out from February to August 2021 by the University of Helsinki and Freie Universität Berlin. Questionnaire was targeted at the research professionals and policymakers at each of the eight Una Europa universities participating in the project (University of Edinburgh; University of Helsinki; University of Bologna; Complutense University of Madrid; Freie University Berlin; Katholieke Universiteit Leuven; Jagiellonian University; Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne) aiming to identify the complementary strengths, values, opportunities and barriers for the building the capacities for research collaboration in this alliance. Questionnaire helped us to understand specifically the university level strategic research themes or areas / thematic priorities, areas of excellence, multidisciplinary structures, strategic partnerships and the universities' codes of conduct or other value-based regulations. The benchmarking served as a groundwork for development of the Una Europa R&I strategy that was launched in November 2023.

Task was conducted together with the WP2 colleagues, who prepared the second part of the questionnaire benchmarking the existing strategies, policies and initiatives on research infrastructures. The WP2 has provided a separate dataset presenting the part 2 answers and curated by the University of Bologna. This dataset is available by request: a.franchini@unibo.it.

Methodologies

In order to achieve the objectives of each work package, the Una.Resin project followed a common methodology across work packages:

- Development of shared strategies, agendas and policies following definition of scope, mapping of policies and assets, stakeholder consultation and identification of barriers and enablers of R&I cooperation
- Development of an action plan to implement shared priorities
- Initial implementation via pilot actions
- Evaluation of pilot actions

This dataset relates to phase 1, i.e., mapping and understanding the relevant policies of the different institutions, providing WPs with essential information to develop shared strategies. The main methods used in phase 1 were: (1) questionnaires, targeted at policy makers, research administration professionals and relevant academics; (2) co-creation workshops for the academic community, targeted mainly at the academic leaders and other researchers in the five aforementioned Una Europa priority research areas.

Concerning specifically the work done in WP1, the main major tasks of the benchmarking phase were: R&I Strategy Benchmarking including the benchmarking questionnaire and benchmarking of the publicly available strategies of the Una Europa universities; on-line Una Europa R&I Strategy Workshop involving academics from all partner universities; One Health SSC Workshop involving academics from the Una Europa One Health focus area; Online Consultation of the Una Europa Community done using Viima platform and done in collaboration with the Una Europa 2030 Strategy process and answers of the eight strategic questions for targeted to the Una Europa partners institutions done also as part of the Una Europa 2030 strategy.

All these activities have been described in the Una.Resin WP1 Deliverable 1.1. "Benchmarking R&I Strategies and Priorities for a Joint Una Europa Strategy".
