Aging

Nasratullah Hewadwall

Cultural Heritage Worker, Afghanistan

I am not an advocate of war, I am saddened by the state of our cultural heritage and hope that one day we will have a contingency plan to save it. Perhaps there will be looting again. People have nothing to eat, they could be capable of anything on a bad day and ransack everything that can be sold. Hopefully, I will not live to see that awful day.

Anyway, in these five years, I have aged 100 years in my 20s, and our hearts here are full of pain. We have already died in our 20s. Hopefully, our next generations will never experience a system such as the current one again. I pray for this every day.
