I am deeply grateful to him for creation of a nice working atmosphere, his permanent assistance, useful advices, plenty of helpful discussions leading to new ideas, and for supporting me a lot by solving the every-day problems.

I would like to thank Dr. Marcel Schmidt am Busch for introducing me to the computational methods and for the useful discussions.

I wish to acknowledge Prof. Snezana Zarić for her collaboration in my first quantum-chemical project related to heme and Dr. Hiroshi Ishikita for collaboration in the projects related to the bacterial photosynthetic reaction center.

I am grateful to Björn Kolbeck, for introducing me to the administration of our Computer-Cluster. My thanks to Henning Riedesel and Florian Krull for helping me to keep computers running.
